PUPILS IN PANIC.

Fatal Alarm of Fire Started by Youth.
Scholar Causes Bad Crash in Parochial School.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

"CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) A false alarm of fire started by a frightened pupil in a parochial school here last night when he saw steam escaping from a defective heating pipe resulted in a panic among the 308 pupils in the Nativity school, 306 South Avenue. Thirty-seventh street.

One child was injured. Two leaped from second-story windows to escape from the supposed fire. The injured child was Sadie Cavanaugh, 7 years old, No. 2724 South Avenue, who was severely bruised and cut when pushed beneath a drift of stairs by the rush of children trying to get out of the building. She was found unconscious

OIL OCTOPUS RUNS 'EM OUT.

Texas Company Suspends All Business There.

Wells and Refinery Close as Result of Trust.

Head of Company Tells Mode of Competition.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
GALVESTON (Tex.) Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Southwestern Oil Company has suspended all business in Texas and its refinery near Houston, and other property in the several oil fields, valued at about $500,000, is up for sale. This company has been enjoying a $500,000 business annually in Texas. The management says it was found impossible for an independent oil company to business in Texas at a profit. When it enjoyed a good trade the trust, through its branch concerns, put the price to less than cost. The offer for the Southwestern's property came from the Standard, but the Texas laws will not permit of the sale to the trust. President Still of the Southwestern said: "Two per cent. per quarter upon all property, and a 3 per cent. tax on sales, is more than any independent company can stand when the trust cuts the price to cost."

SHE DECLARES HER INNOCENCE.

Mrs. Mary & Hartje Breaks Long Silence.

Wife of Pittsburgh Millionaire Says She Was True to Her Husband and Would Not, for His Entire Fortune, Make Confession of Acts of Indelicacy.

PITTSBURGH (Pa.) Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Breaking her long silence, Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje today declared she had no fear of her millionaire husband's latest vicious attempt to mar her character, and that, no matter what happens, she is happy because no power can make her live again with Augustus Hartje. "I have done nothing to be ashamed of, and I was a true wife," was the almost pathetic heroine of this long-deferred statement of the beautiful woman, who probably has been bemused more than any wife that ever stood in a divorce court. "I do so hope to win, after a long, bitter struggle. I just wanted to be happy in my freedom and my children's love."

Touching Hartje's offer to give her all the luxuries that millions can buy, if she will confess infidelity with the coachee co-responder, Tom Madine, she shuddered. "Ah, yes, his generous offer! No, no! I can't accept such a generous offer. Does he expect me, innocent as I am, to say I am guilty? I would not do such a thing if he gave me his whole fortune."

"Mr. Hartje, through agents, has made me four offers of settlement since the court decided for me. The last offer, made two weeks ago, consisted of $100,000 a year for life. He offered to pay all the expenses of the trial, all my expenses since we separated, to place the children in any school I selected, and to be allowed to choose between us when they reached the age of discretion. I refused without hesitation."

"Oh, but I'm afraid to be accused of these awful things. Why, he didn't want me to go," she exclaimed, pathetically. "He said the couldn't get along without me. Before I left, he threatened to kill me! I want."

"Then when I was leaving he said: 'Well, it won't do you any good. You'll never get a divorce. I'll buy the judge. I'll buy the jury. I'll get the children.'"

"It does seem he is trying to buy everything in sight."

Her husband's offer to prove her guilt beyond doubt, but she doesn't blink.

FORMER PRESIDENT IS HARDLY ABLE TO WALK.

Grover Cleveland. From his latest photograph, taken before his recent serious illness, which has left him well nigh helpless.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Leaving on a cane and seemingly just able to limp, Grover Cleveland, accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland and a woman whose identity could not be learned, passed through Jersey City shortly after 9 o'clock this morning. Mr. Cleveland looked just the shade of his former self and appeared to be a very sick man. The Cleveland train came in from Princeton over the Pennsylvania road and arrived in Jersey City at 9:10 a.m. After the passengers had almost all

SHIP IS LOST, MANY DROWN.

STEAMER FRITHJOF GOES DOWN IN ICELAND SEA.

Captain and Fifteen of Crew West Death-Engineer Clings to Plank and Is Saved—Boat Was in Wellman's Expedition and Was Exceptionally Strong Craft.

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 10.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Arctic steamer Frithjof, which accompanied Walter Wellman's expedition to Spitzbergen, was lost off Cape Langane, Iceland, October 8. The captain and fifteen of his crew were drowned. The engineer clung to a plank on which he drifted ashore. The Frithjof was homeward bound, for Norway, having been damaged by ice, and was unable to withstand a storm which she encountered off Cape Langane. She was a stout bark-rigged steamer, built especially for Arctic work. Her beams were unusually strong, and her ribs were protected by heavy steel sheathing. She went through ice with considerable ease, and was so stout that she could have an ice pack freeze her up without much danger. Wellman chartered the Frithjof at Tromsø, July 8, 1904. She carried men, tools and supplies to Camp Wellman, and made one or two trips back and forth. It is believed that Wellman returned the steamer to its owners when he came back to Tromsø after abandoning his attempt to reach the pole this year. The ill-fated craft was named after Frithjof Nansen, the Arctic explorer.

BIRTHMARKS REMOVED.

French Physicians Discover That Radium Takes Away "Port Wine Stains."

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)
PARIS, Oct. 10.—Two prominent French physicians, Doctors Wickham and De Grais, have caused a sensation at the Academy of Medicine by a report that they had succeeded in removing birthmarks, known as port wine stains, with radium. The new method has proven equally successful in the cases of adults and children. The marks are effaced by the simple application of a plain surface covered with varnish containing radium. The action is regulated by the length and frequency of the application. The doctors showed a series of photographs illustrating the stages of the cure and final treatment, which left the stain in its normal condition. The applications, they stated, were absolutely painless, and the treatment could be applied to an infant during sleep.

RAILROAD RECORD. ROADS REACH THEIR LIMIT.

Western Lines Cannot Care
for More Traffic.

Useless to Advertise Home-seekers' Rates.

Frank Confession Is Made by Passenger Agents.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—That it will be useless to attempt to develop the West with inadequate railroad facilities was the assertion of transportation officers at a meeting in Chicago yesterday.

The conference was of general passenger agents of western roads, and the questions for consideration "was low home-seekers' rates during the coming winter and spring. It had been proposed that for the sake of developing the trans-Missouri country, the usual low round-trip fares should be authorized, which rates have had the effect to settle the great districts during the past few years.

After a thorough discussion it was the consensus that it would be useless to go ahead with the low rates and attempt to populate the Western States when transportation companies are entirely inadequate to handle the present business.

It was a frank confession on the part of railroad men of the deplorable condition of transportation lines, showing that while the West needs people the railroads are not in a position to handle the traffic. Thus it is evident that the trans-Missouri country must wait until railroads build more tracks and secure additional equipment.

Managers of one or two of the railroads at the conference, however, said that they were willing to take chances on their facilities and go ahead with low home-seekers' rates during the next six months and it is likely that the will of these will prevail.

LAWYERS FOR RAILROADS.

RATE-MAKING
IS DISCUSSED.

STATE COMMISSIONERS FAVOR
UNIFORM CLASSIFICATION.

Report is Adopted at National Convention, Calling Upon Congress to Enact Law Requiring Interstate Body to Proceed With Adjusting Freight Schedules.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Thus far no "serious" differences of opinion have arisen among the delegates to the National Association of Railway Commissioners' Convention and the discussion of rate-making, which is the subject of the convention.

Two reports on the program for the day, those on "legislation" and "rates and rate making," were expected to provoke some discussion of general interest, both striking directly at the point of cleavage between the authorities of the national government and that of the states as individual sovereignties.

The committee on "Rates and Rate Making" takes sharp issue with the national government on the subject of Federal control, which the committee holds is impossible without an amendment to the Constitution. The committee maintains the control of rates be lodged near at home as possible.

The committee urged, also, uniformity of action between the Federal and state railway authorities, and that in some instances, at least, the State Railway Commissioners act as agents for the Interstate Commerce Commission.

O. P. Gathlin of Ohio presented a report on "Uniform Classification," in which he offered a resolution that was the sense of the convention that "Congress enact a law requiring the Interstate Commerce Commission at once to proceed to make such uniform classification, and when made, the same shall be the legal classification for interstate shipments."

The report recommended the appointment of a special committee to hasten the adoption of a uniform classification of freight. The report was adopted.

RESIGNATIONS RUMORED.

Several Important Changes in Official Roster of Great Northern Are Predicted.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

ST. PAUL, Oct. 1.—The Dispatch today says: "From a source of unquestionable reliability, it is learned that General Manager T. E. Ward of the Great Northern Railroad today tendered his resignation. It is also learned that at the meeting of a board of directors which is being held at the Great Northern Railway headquarters here, simultaneously with the stockholders' meeting in New York, that other important changes in the official roster of the road will be made."

"No confirmation or denial of the statement of the above could be obtained at the Great Northern offices, but the information came in such a manner as to make a confirmation all too unnecessary."

LESS THAN TWO CENTS.

Union Pacific Makes Report as to Passenger Traffic Receipts in Nebraska.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 1.—The annual report of the Union Pacific Railroad was filed with the State Railway Commission today for the period ended June 30.

The statement was made that the average amount secured per mile for passenger travel was 1.66 cents.

The period covered in the report includes about eight months before the 2-cent fare law went into effect, indicating that the railroad received a trifle less than 2 cents before the law went into operation.

TO HIGHEST COURT.

MOVE IN RATE CASES.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 1.—Gen. W. F. Thompson announced today that he will ask the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of mandamus to compel the district judge for Nebraska to remove the railroad case over which jurisdiction was retained in the Federal Court.

The case involves the enforcement of the anti-pass law, the 2-cent fare and the maximum freight-rate bills. Mr. Thompson asked the Supreme Court of Nebraska for injunctions to prevent the railroads from disobeying the law, but the railroads removed the case to the Federal Court, which refused to sustain a motion to remand.

CUTS CEMENT RATE.

Southern Pacific Makes Reduction
from Minnesota to California Terminals.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The Southern Pacific has lowered the rate on cement from Minnesota to California terminals.

The new schedule cuts the price in carload lots of not less than 40,000 pounds from 44 1/2 to 43 1/2 per 100 pounds. This new rate will go into effect immediately and is applicable via Council Bluffs and Ogden, in connection with the St. Paul or the Chicago Great Western, and the Union Pacific.

RAILROAD IS ROBBED.

Over Half Million Dollars' Worth of Merchandise Stolen on Burlingame in Transit.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

DENVER, Oct. 1.—Over $500,000 worth of merchandise has been stolen on the Burlington railroad in transit between Chicago and Denver during the past year and 500 Italian laborers who pilaged freight cars have been discharged, according to a report published in the Denver Times today.

It is said that secret service agents ferreted out the syndicate which the robbers were constantly committing, but failed to secure evidence sufficient to convict any of the thieves.

MAGILL TRIAL.

TWELVE JURORS
ARE SECURED.

OUTLINE OF CASES WILL BE GIVEN TODAY.

Two Business Men, Nine Laborers and a Farmer, Will Have in Their Hands Fate of Illinois Banker and Bride, Charged With His First Wife's Murder.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The last of the twelve men in whose hands the fate of Fred and Fay Magill, charged with killing Magill's first wife, was chosen this afternoon.

At the request of the State, the outline of the case will be given when court convenes tomorrow. Special Counsel Herrick stated tonight that the State would attack the validity of Mrs. Fay Magill's letter in which she is said to have assigned contradictory reasons for committing suicide. The State has summoned several witnesses in a probable attempt to prove that the domestic relations of the Magills were unpleasant, and that Fred and Fay Magill had a secret understanding for weeks prior to the alleged murder.

Mr. Maude Fellner, the Denver marriage license clerk, who issued the permit to Fred and Fay Magill, arrived here today in answer to a summons from the State, indicating that the point to the remainder of the week being consumed by the prosecution in the presentation of its direct testimony. The defense will present its direct rebuttal in two days, it is believed. Both sides are anxious to get to arguments by next Wednesday.

Two business men, nine laborers and a farmer make up the jury.

LAKES-TO-GULF.

ILLINOIS WANTS
DEEP WATERWAY.

APPROPRIATION OF $18,000,000 IS PLANNED.

Agreement is Said to Have Been Reached by Leaders in Senate and House to Adopt Resolution at Coming Session of Legislature Authorizing State Aid.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

SPRINGFIELD (Ill.) Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A resolution for a constitutional amendment authorizing the State to issue $18,000,000 bonds for the purpose of prosecuting the lakes-to-gulf canal project as it relates to Illinois, is declared today to be the agreement reached by Senate and House leaders as a solution of the deep-waterway legislation at the adjourned session of the General Assembly in 1907.

The plan is to have the State take up the development of the drainage canal at Leckport, to which point the sanitary district has carried the ditch, and develop it down to Utica, Ill., near La Salle. This action will mean that further development of the drainage canal and waterpower facilities will have to wait until after the next session of the General Assembly in 1909.

The proposed constitutional amendment will have to be submitted to a vote of the people at the general election in November, 1908, and if ratified by the people the Legislature will have authority to issue bonds.

WORK FOR CONVICTS.

Proposition is Made in Illinois to Employ Prison Labor on Good Roads.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Prison labor will construct good roads in Illinois, it is the plan of the State, according to a report of the State Prison Commission today.

A new plan, which is receiving serious consideration from the highway commissionmen and upon which they expect help from the Legislature, is the construction of "good roads" with-out an increased burden upon the taxpayers, by getting stone and gravel from the State prisons.

To accomplish this, the highway commission advocates the building of a new road in various parts of the State to supply the demand. This plan would accomplish wonderful results, according to the chief engineer of the State prison system.

Union labor will probably object to the plan, as it might be construed as interfering with one of their branches.

Mrs. Romadke Gives This as Excuse for Robberies.

Millionaire's Wife Says She Has No Other Reason.

Insanity Probably Will Be the Woman's Defense.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mrs. Evelyn Romadke, the "woman raffles," wife of Charles J. Romadke, the millionaire manufacturer of Milwaukee, made an ineffectual attempt to jump her bail bond and escape today.

She was recaptured. Later in the day she was accused of robbing five more homes in the city of jewelry valued at $40 to $70. She was released on $100 bail, and taken to Milwaukee by her husband's friends tonight. Mrs. Romadke's defense undoubtedly will be insanity.

"Providing the confession is true," said Attorney Donovan, "the woman is evidently insane. This is the only sensible way to look at the matter. If she had not been insane she would not have worn the jewelry to the Baltimore Inn, knowing that the same belonged to the proprietor's wife."

"This is the only tenable theory of the case provided, of course, that the confession is verified," concluded Mr. Donovan. "At present I do not know whether or not it is true."

"I stole because I am bad, naturally bad," said Mrs. Romadke at the Harrison-street annex today. "I did not need to steal to support myself, but I enjoyed the work, and that is my only excuse. In fact, I have no excuse except that I am bad."

At St. Louis an effort is being made to connect Mrs. Romadke with the $100,000 worth of jewelry from the Dyer home, but so far as can be learned here, she was not in St. Louis at the time.

GRIFT PROSECUTION.

GRAND JURY IS
AFTER BROWN.

ANOTHER INDICTMENT IS RE-TURNED AGAINST LAWYER.

Charge is Made of Subornation of Perjury in Inducing Cheever to Testify Falsely in Connection With Alleged Kidnaping of San Francisco Editor.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The grand jury today returned another indictment against Luther O. Brown, reputed to be the "head of the United Railroads detective force" in this city, who was indicted recently with Attorney R. Porter Ashe, on charges of abducting Fremont Older, managing editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, was today accused by the grand jury of subornation of perjury in procuring G. A. Wyman, a chauffeur, to testify falsely before the in-questorial body while under examination for the alleged kidnaping.

Wyman drove the car in which Older was taken, against his will, as he says, to Hedwood City, en route to Los Angeles, to answer to a libel suit instituted by Brown in connection with the present bribery graft prosecution. Wyman, according to the prosecution, was "corrupted" by Henry the grand jury today returned an indictment against John E. West, a member of the Electrical Workers' union, who was indicted recently on charges of short-circuiting the wires of the United Railroads.

Brown's bail was fixed by Judge Coffey at $10,000, or $5,000 cash. West at $5000 bond or $2500 cash. A bench warrant was issued for the arrest of each.

BUYERS RANCH FOR TREASURE.

Young Nevada Millionaire Pays a Big Sum for Auburn Ranch in Order to Find Gold.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

RENO, Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Last week an agent of George Wingfield, the young Nevada millionaire, closed a deal with the owner of the old Cook ranch, near Auburn, by purchasing a check for $25,000, and taking possession.

The ranch consists of about 200 acres in old fruit trees, with a dilapidated house and barn upon it. Many have speculated on what induced Wingfield to make the purchase, but it has been learned that the lucky Nevada mining man believes he has secured a hidden treasure in the old river channel, which runs through the place.

Several weeks ago Wingfield's man visited Auburn, and in a game of cards at the hotel learned the story of the wonderful rich place gold once lay hidden.

It is understood that Wingfield will search for the gold-bearing streak.

HIS EXCISE NOVEL.

D. Solomon of No. 715 San Fernando street was arrested on the charge of carrying a concealed weapon. At Central Station he asserted that while going home, and as he passed Ord and Pershing streets, two men held him up and robbed him of a watch and $20. He says that he went home and secured a revolver with the view of capturing the highwaymen.

BERMONTON Navy Yard, which will be the northernmost of the coming naval fleet, will be described in the Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

"BY STAGE ACROSS OREGON" is the title of an interesting descriptive article which will appear in the Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

ERANK O. CARPENTER will set in west Sunday's Times Magazine, about the way he does in Egypt by American archaeologists.

banks's Rescue.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The interior, the Chicago organ of the Presbyterian church, in its issue of today, explains the cocktail incident at the residence of Vice-President Fairbanks and gives the distinguished Indian a clean bill of character.

Incidentally, the blame for the disagreeable affair is placed on the shoulders of a woman.

"The interior is able to say on the highest authority that Vice-President Fairbanks was not responsible for the appearance of cocktails on his table when he entertained President Roosevelt at his Indianapolis home," says the Presbyterian publication.

"A lady living near the Fairbanks home, and an intimate friend of the family, was at the house on that day, assisting Mrs. Fairbanks in the arrangements of the great company to be entertained, and noted that there were no drinkables on the table."

"She hastily ordered the cocktails up from her husband's club. The club steward prepared them, and an auto brought them to the house in great haste."

"The first that Mr. Fairbanks knew of the violation of his Methodist habit was when he came to the table with his guests. He did not touch the glass at his own plate."

CLARK IS PESSIMISTIC.

Montana Senator Says Overproduction
and President's Policy Cause Distress.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES)

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] United States Senator William A. Clark of Montana arrived today on the steamer Teutonic of the White Star Line. With him was his son, Charles Walker Clark, and the latter's wife, who was a guest of the Senator.

The Senator, as he came ashore, had the same mournful note to sing that has been sounded by every rich man coming home from Europe in two months. He said there was a lack of confidence in American securities on the other side. He ascribed this to two causes—overproduction and the President's policy.

"Mr. Roosevelt is not spectacular," he said. "He is a man who will undoubtedly be the candidate of his party for a third term. It is my opinion that Bryan will be the opposing candidate."

Bryan is a big man, but I don't believe he is as strong in the South as he used to be."

San Francisco Committee Adopts Report on Disposition of City and County Patients.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 1.—The Supervisors' Health Committee adopted today the report of the special committee, consisting of F. W. Dohrmann, President Ophule of the Health Board and Supervisors Brandenstein, Rixford and Payot, that the City and County Hospital and the almshouse be vacated and having been an important acquisition of a new city and county hospital building. The report will be submitted to the Board of Supervisors.

The report also recommended the immediate vacating of the City and County Hospital and the almshouse, and that the inmates thereof be cared for in the Ingleside camp of the Relief Home.

shines all the rest of the freshmen in scrub work and he will be likely to finish the season on the varsity squad. The California scrub promises to be much stronger than the Cardinal pack, for it is composed chiefly of men who have experienced at least one big game and are not subject to stage fright. Moreover, they are working well together, holding out rapidly and screwing in good order. Stanford will have a strong back field, and the local backs will have to keep up with the red-shirts.

CLAREMONT, Oct. 10.—Hopes for a football game between the Occidental and Pomona preparatory students have been dashed by a prohibitory decree from the Athletic Committee of the Pomona faculty. The committee says it is too late in the season to begin practice, and that it would hamper varsity practice and take men away from the second team.

"LESSONS OF THE HUNT" is the title of a delightfully humorous article in The Times Magazine the coming Sunday.

A dark, vertical, textured surface, possibly a book cover or a piece of wood, with a ruler visible along the right edge. The ruler shows markings in inches and centimeters, with the number '10' visible at the bottom. The surface has a grainy, uneven texture and some lighter-colored streaks or scratches.

In a bower of mountain shrub, with the peaks of the Sierras towering above her and at her very feet the brink of the cañon wall, Adele Webb, a pretty Los Angeles girl, was found on the Wilson trail, yesterday morning, after more than a hundred citizens of Sierra Madre had spent the night searching for the demented young woman.

Wild-eyed, the girl, whose great ambition to become an actress had been shattered, stood in a natural bower of ferns and mountain roses and with her hair wind-tossed and her voice raised to a shriek above the sound of the mountain stream, she repeated over and over again the lines from the fearful character of Lady Macbeth. Like a spirit of a mountain storm she seemed to the rescuers, who were out by their long search, came upon her suddenly on the trail.

How far the girl wandered may never be known. With her eyes softening as though a vision was passing before her, she told of a trip through fair forests, where the trees blazed with diamonds like fire, and little elves whispered to her from behind the trunks of the mountain pines and peeped at her from beneath the tall ferns. To her it had been a dreamlike trip. The whispering of the trees was music and the mountain stream was the voice of fairies. In the dark night, through cañons and over the faucy and treacherous trail, the girl had roamed, but there was not even as much as a scratch, or a rent in her dress, to give evidence of her experience. Death, by a fall over the cliffs, must have been often near her during the hours of darkness.

Miss Webb is the daughter of Mrs.
L. T. Webb, proprietress of the Ohio lodging-house on North Broadway. She is just 20 years of age and in delicate health. For the past year she had studied hard for the stage, and had been disappointed in not receiving a theatrical offer she had expected from the East.

When she suggested entering upon her mother in Los Angeles, her mother opposed her and the worry and long hours of study, combined with her condition of health, caused Miss Webb to suffer a mental collapse.

Hoping her daughter might be benefited by a change of climate, Mrs.
Webb rented a cottage at Sierra Madre. They had been living there a week, when, Wednesday evening, Miss Webb left her home, walking through the streets of Sierra Madre and as night closed in on the mountains she found her way to the trail and began the ascent.

Her departure was discovered in less than an hour and a searching party was quickly organized. N. C. Calder, the Marshal, and City Trustee N. H.
Hooper, Wellington, Hathaway and L. L. Clark headed it. Every cañon in the neighborhood was explored.
Framed with grief, Mrs. Webb also searched throughout the night. The searchers were through. The door of light from moving lanterns and the boming reports of the guns as on-searching party signalled to another caused hundreds to hurry toward the hills in the hope of lending aid.

Not until yesterday morning did the searchers learn that a girl answering the description of Miss Webb had been seen making her way toward the old Wilson trail.

A party was quickly formed and the members, many of whom were schoolboys hurried to the trail. Deep in the mountains, where the shrubbery was densest, the girl was found. Still repeating the lines of tragedy she was down the mountain to the cottage, which will be her home for the next month.

The girl is so incensed against her mother because of the latter's objection to the stage that when the rescue party took her home she refused to speak to her.

Physicians state that rest and nearness of the mountains, which she loves, will probably effect a cure.

TEN THOUSAND FOR HOME.
Althouse Bros. have sold to Mrs.
Julia Cunningham a two-story ten-room frame residence, just completed, at No. 1540 Manhattan Place. There are hardwood floors throughout, all cellings are beamed and the walls are paneled and covered with imported tapestries. The lighting fixtures are of special design. The lot is 60x115 feet.
The property was bought for a home,
consideration, $10,000.

The Bluffer Bluffed.
The talkative man in the smoking room was boring the company with his reminiscences of the great people he had met.

"Last week," he said, "I spent a most delightful day with my friend, Lord Broadacre."

"Indeed," said a gentleman in a corner, who had not hitherto spoken, "and you don't recognize me as Lord Broadacre?"

The bluffer one instantly collapsed, and, muttering some apology, left the room.

"And I'm not Lord Broadacre at all," chuckled the gentleman as the door closed upon the disappointed one.

More Variety Is Helpful

Another feature. Variety alone might mean nothing. But Staub's variety means that each style in all the multitude of new lasts is a thoroughly good shoe. Is it not an agreeable task to select your shoes where every doubt of quality can be laid aside and your undivided thought given to the selection of the particular model that pleases you? It never costs higher to wear Staub Shoes.

The final judgment on a store's fitness to serve its customers' needs must come from those customers. We're repeatedly told by women who know, that there's not a knit underwear stock in town that begins to compare with ours for variety and breadth of assortment. We want YOUR judgment; try us today.

In underwear for women we carry complete lines of all the following well-known makes—Merode, Dr. Deimel's Linen Mesh, Zimmerli, the Swan imported goods, and one or two other famous knit-wear manufacturers. There isn't a need or a fancy that we can't supply from such an array. And for your immediate acquaintance with the goodness of these stocks, we offer today the following SPECIALS: Luzerne flat goods; small-sized vests and pants which sell in a regular way for $1.50, now $1.00 Zimmerli high-neck short-sleeved all-wool vests, in small sizes only; regularly $1.75, for $1.00

Knit Underwear For Boys and Girls

In these stocks you'll find such satisfying makes of knit underwear as Merode, Globe (in cotton and wool) Stuttgarter and others in sizes for children of 1 year, up to those for boys and girls of 15 and 16.

We keep constantly in stock, in union suits alone, six or seven different styles, of wool or part cotton, some fleece lined, from 50c to $1.25 and $1.50. And for infants, we've the celebrated Rubens Infant Shirts and the Arnold Knit Goods in all qualities; likewise Deimel Linen Mesh garments for children of one-year up to those for boys and girls of 15 and 16 years. Now for some SPECIALS: Egyptian cotton vests, pants and drawers in odd sizes; from 4 and 5-year-old children to boys of 12 and 14; regularly 35c; now 25c Odd lines of wool and Linen Mesh shirts, drawers and union suits, representing values from $1 to $2; now 75c Odd lines of boys' drawers and children's shirts, wool and cotton mixed; regularly 75c to $1; now 50c Full lines of children's BLACK PANTS of fine list, winter cotton, and wool and cotton mixed, in sizes from 2 to 14 years.

Waist Clearance $1.50.

Brings to You Waists Worth Up to $3.00 Waist stocks have a provoking way of selling down to three or four of a style or size; we've put together all these different kinds and marked them, for immediate clearance, at one price. The least expensive in the lot was formerly $2; the best $3, and there are all the in-between price steps as well.

In the larger sizes, particularly, there's diversity of choice, though there are two or three different styles in almost every size from 34 to 44. Long and short sleeves, fine lace and embroidery trimmings—in short, the very prettiest models of this summer. Newcomers are demanding their display space—that's the reason for the big reduction.

Twenty-Five Dollars And the Suit It Will Buy

Because we carry an extensive stock of costly ready-to-wear suits, don't get the mistaken impression that we haven't variety practically as wide in the less expensive sorts. The knowledge of quality that comes from buying high-priced garments helps wonderfully in the selection of superior grades of moderate price. Just as an illustration of what the woman who's planned to spend only $25.00 or thereabouts for her every-day fall suit, can do here:

- $27.50 Suit of red cheviot, cut with single-breasted Prince Chap coat, made with two side pockets; pleated skirt, with fold around bottom; an unusually graceful model.
- $25.00 Suit of brown Panama; Prince Chap coat, with narrow white vestee; pleated skirt.
- $25.00 Red and black striped suit, made in cutaway style; coat has four pockets; velvet collar, edged with braid and piping; single-breasted cut.
- $25.00 Suit of marmish dark blue and green stripe; fitted hip length, single-breasted coat; full pleated skirt.

Hyde Dwight, landscape gardener, were accepted. They include a large pleasure lake, covering twenty acres, a bandstand and amphitheater, with cement seats for 2000 people, a conservatory, pavilion, an arboretum, ponds for tropical plants, shrubbery and wide avenues planted with shade trees, together with acres of lawn. The race track will not be disturbed.

This question caused some discussion during the meeting yesterday. It was decided to allow the truck to remain for the use of the bus for automobiles, to be used for such purposes only. The general plan of improvement has been made to attract the line of the city in a way, which will become even more attractive because of its beautiful surroundings.

The oval within the track will be located the lake. There will be a handsome peristyle at either end. This fine body of water will be twice as large as Westlake Park lake, and larger than the lake of the city in a way, which will become even more attractive because of its beautiful surroundings.

It will be supplied by city water. Overflow or surplus water from the lake will be used for watering purposes. The water will be used for watering purposes. The water will be used for watering purposes.

be pretty wide paths, also treated with the ornamental surface.

There are to be three entrances to the park. One on Monica avenue, another on Wesley avenue, and another on Figueroa street. It is proposed to secure an extra entrance at a point where Figueroa street first touches the park. This would be the main entrance and would make the park boulevard a continuation of the wide highway. The entrance on Figueroa street would be the most used. The entrance is now owned by private parties.

GRAND STAND WILL GO.

The grand stand and stables will be removed. The former will be converted into a pavilion to be located at the north end of the park. On the present site of the buildings a series of smaller buildings will be erected. A baseball and a test who will superintend the work. We must move rapidly, too. I propose that we start with a meeting before the end of the week. I'd like to begin tomorrow. The reason for my haste is that we may have the public in full control of the park at the earliest possible moment. Without the park, the revolution is a revolution for the "rummy" associations to gain control."

At the meeting of a committee to handle the funds to be devoted to park improvement will be a part of the work of the board at its meeting Thursday Mr. Sullivan will take for help, and it is probably that members of the several civic associations represents will be chosen to work with him. It is also probable that a building such a large amount as is proposed to expend have not been per-

Minor Incidents in the Career of Mistah Bonetto

THE world's greatest ever-remembered man at last been discovered. He was Sultan Hambo Sambo Gambo Bero Gern Bero Willamette Nutto Bonetto, a Los Angeles negro, who, although accused in the royal robes of a lion, was captured last Wednesday by Garbage Inspector Nick Harris. His "royal highness" was charged with having collected garbage without a license.

The court looked upon the royal personage, who, bedecked in a gilt-trimmed soldier's cap, and purple-and-gold embroidery, bowed and scraped before the court. Then, having heard some of the charges against him by the king, he allowed the negro to proceed with the story of his life. Not of his life, but of his lives, for Bonetto modestly admitted having been killed three times and then being reborn.

First Justice Frederickson sat amazed. Had Annanias been in court at that moment he would have wept with Bonetto.

Bonetto began at the beginning. With many gestures he told the court that he had been born in the royal palace and rightful heir to the throne, having been born in the royal palace. When he was young, which according to the he must have been about the time Columbus discovered America, he used to chase wild lions over the plains in the back yard of his father's castle. He was very fond of lions, and as they were hurrying by the woodpile, He impressed upon the court the startling fact that the lion would roar, lions roar their best, and that everything within miles would fall dead at the sound. His met death for the first time.

HIS OFTEN KILLED.

Having been killed by the lion's roar he was captured by the Spaniards and taken to Spain in a ship. He was put on a galley, and there he met other Africans, and after several weeks they were all so hungry that the children devoured their mothers. Sambo Gambo Bero Willamette Nutto Bonetto and bark in the coral until one of his companions ate him up. That was the end of his first life, and he began his second.

He began his second life by listening to the gigantic sb, fairly gashed. He had heard hard luck stories before, but nothing like this.

He began his third life when Sultan Hambo was prodded into a cattle pen and there killed by means of the royal sword. He was then taken to the ship, taken to sea, and dumped overboard. He told the court he lay on the floor of the ocean seven days and when had been used to being waken by that time, and didn't mind it, so he kicked the biggest fish in the abdomen, and he was elected king of the fish. He was then taken to the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, and he was taken to the aquatic counties and swam sixty days. He was finally rescued by people of his own race, and he was taken to his home, where he was kept in a tank of him, where he was kept in a tank of him before he felt like living on dry land.

When he came to the United States, he carried Thomas Jefferson about the streets shortly after he had been elected President, which was considered a great honor. He was then killed three times. Then he was sold three times for $100,000 each time. He said he couldn't take high prices because he was the master of the world. He told Justice Frederickson that he was called upon to race a man from New York to New Orleans, a lead of seven miles. He explained modestly that he could run so fast because he was a African wind in his mouth.

He won two races, but in the third he was demoralized by the fact that he had become a swimming fish. He was then taken to the city of New Orleans, Louisiana, and he was taken to the aquatic counties and swam sixty days. He was finally rescued by people of his own race, and he was taken to his home, where he was kept in a tank of him before he felt like living on dry land.

He told Justice Frederickson that he was called upon to race a man from New York to New Orleans, a lead of seven miles. He explained modestly that he could run so fast because he was a African wind in his mouth.

A LONG START.

On the last race "Sultan" Sambo told the court that it required sixty days for the start. He illustrated by showing how he and his rival would try and get one foot a little ahead of the other. Two months had been used up before they finally got an even start, and in

The machine hundreds of men had been killed in arguments over the enormous bets made on the contest.

Sambo won by three miles, having eaten so many pies, that he could not be bothered to finish the race.

Then, he admitted with a dusky blush that he had become a dog, and showed the court how he had been a pointer and a retriever, and how he had learned to speak the dog language, and that saved his life later, when a dog attacked him and he explained in the dog language why he was not to be eaten.

After that he was killed several more indefinite times, having been burned and skinned, buried alive, and hung by his heels.

The "Sultan" at last broke down and admitted with sobs that even the Shah himself had been a dog, and was biting him in the ear had not caused him to be killed.

He was then taken to the gallows by arrest by Garbage Inspector Harris.

So rather than hurt the feelings of this remarkable man Justice Frederickson said, "You are a dog."

Nelson Hunt Jackson, the author of "Ramona," gave to the world a great novel; but its excellence is well sustained in the beautiful villa tract that bears the name "Ramona Acres." # The Powers and Maxine.

By C. N. and A. M. Williamson.

Maxine looked at the woman who seemed to be a great actress, but she could not control the dew which sprang out on her forehead, or the beating of her heart when she touched the sofa, so I knew. I had been watching you for that. There has been an error, and I am only a woman.

"I don't blame you, but those who love you," said Maxine, letting me lead her to a chair, into which she sank, limply. "I am thankful you do not tell me. These diamonds are contraband in some way. I was not sure but it would be in that."

"Not at all, Mademoiselle. I wish you were of them. It is you who will adorn the jewels, not they you. Again I apologize for myself and my companion. We have but done our duty."

"I have a man who has been scorned by a woman? He knew I wanted all my strength for tonight, the night of the new play—and he will be hoping that this has broken me. But I will not be broken. If you would alone, Mademoiselle, for your part in this scene, you will go to the theater this evening and encourage me by your applause."

All three bowed. The commissary of police, lately so relentless, murmured compliments. It was all very French, and after what had passed, gave me the sensation that I was in a dream.

CHAPTER VI.

IVOR.

They were gone. They had closed the door behind them. I looked at Maxine, but she did not speak. With her fingers to her lips she got up trembling still; and walking to the door, she opened it suddenly to look out. Nobody was there.

"They may have gone into your bedroom to listen at that door," she whispered.

I took the hint, and going quickly into the room adjoining, turned on the light. Emptiness there; but I left the door open, and the electricity switched on; they might change their minds, or be more subtle than they wished to seem.

Maxine threw herself on the sofa, gathering up the necklace from the cushion where it had fallen, and lifting it in both hands pressed the glittering mass against her lips and cheeks.

"Thank God, thank God—and thank you, Ivor, best of friends," she said roekily. In so low a voice that no ear could have caught her words, even if pressed against the keyhole. Then, letting the diamonds drop into her lap, she flung back her head and laughed and cried together.

"Oh, Ivor, Ivor," she panted, between her sobs and hysterical gusts of laughter. "The agony of it, the agony, and the joy now. You're wonderful. Good, precious Ivor—dear friend—"

At this I laughed too, partly to calm her, and partly gently the hands with which she had nervously clutched my sleeve.

"Heaven knows I don't deserve one of those epithets," I said. "I'll just stick to friend."

"Not deserve them?" she repeated. "Not deserve them, when you've saved me—I don't yet understand how—from a horror worse than death—oh, but a thousand times worse. I wanted to die. I meant to die. If they had found it, I shouldn't have lived to see tomorrow morning. Tell me—how did you work such a miracle? How did you get this necklace, that meant so much to me (and to the one I love), and how did you hide this other thing?"

"I don't know anything about this necklace," I answered, stupidly. "I didn't bring it."

"You didn't bring it?"

"No, at least, that red leather thing isn't the case I carried. When the fellow pulled it out from the sofa, I saw it wasn't what I'd had, so I thanked our lucky stars, and would have tried to let you know that all hope wasn't over. If I'd dared to catch your eye or make a signal."

Maxine was suddenly calm. The tears had dried on her cheeks, and her eyes were fever-bright.

"Ivory, you don't know what you are talking about," she said to a changed voice. "That red leather case is what you took out of your breast pocket and handed to me when I first came into the room. At the sound of the knock, I pushed it down as far as I could between the seat and the back of the sofa, and then ran off to a distance before the door opened. You did bring the necklace, knowingly or not; and it was the cause of all my trouble in the beginning. I needn't tell you of the joy I had in seeing it, apart from the heavenly relief of being spared discovery of the thing I feared. Now, when you've given me the other packet, which you hid so marvelously, I can go away happy."

I stared at her, feeling more than ever like one in a dream.

"I gave you the only thing I brought," I said. "It was in my breast pocket, inside my coat. I took it out, and put it in your hands. There was no other thing. Look again in the sofa. It must be there still. This red case is something else—it can try to account for it later. It all came through the lights not working. If it hadn't been so dark, you would have seen that I gave you a dark-green leather letter case, quite different from this, though of about the same length—rather less thick and—"

TRUSTEE SALE THE SHOE STOCK OF

All 15c to 25c shoe polish on sale today at 5 cents. Every popular brand is included. Limit of two bottles to a customer.

Only Two Days

Today and tomorrow—and this $50,000.00 Shoe Sale will be a thing of the past. It positively winds up Saturday night. You had better get here as soon as you can.

The Bon Marche 430, 432, 434 BROADWAY
LeSage Brothers Co.
TO SATISFY CREDITORS

This is the final crash; prices are hammered down to bedrock. It really is not a question of PRICE; the shoes will go with a rush during the next two days, even at a song. The Trustee has determined to wind up the affairs of the company just as quick as the law will allow. There is one thing certain, you will never again have an opportunity of buying HIGH-CLASS footwear at anything like prices prevailing at this sale. It is a forced movement of an immense stock of high-grade shoes; an event that every economical man and woman in reach of Los Angeles should take advantage of.

Shoes for Men

The Bon Marche stock was particularly strong in men's fine footwear; shoes from the very best makers in the country—including Roberts, Johnson & Rand celebrated Star Brand. Think of buying such footwear for less than actual cost of production—but you'll have to hurry. Men's shoes as low as $1.00; the best in the house, formerly up to $6.00, are marked $2.45 for quick clearance.

Shoes for Women

Most women in Los Angeles know the quality of Bon Marche Shoes. Women's shoes as low as 75 cents; others at $1.25, while the best $5.00 and $6.00 lines are marked $1.95 a pair. It's really extraordinary. Dealers are buying these by the dozen pairs. You'll want to lay in a year's supply when you see the values—come in today. Delay will certainly mean disappointment.

The End is in Sight—So You Must Act, Now or Never

Are you going to sit idly at home and let these great money-saving shoe chances pass unheeded? You won't if you are wise. Thousands of women and men have profited by the extraordinary reductions. But today's prices are lower than ever before—the bottom has been reached. You never saw such "good shoes" sold for so little. Whole families can be fitted out now for a very few dollars. Don't fail to get here at the earliest possible moment. Every hour counts. You can't afford to miss this sale. Ask your neighbors—they have been here. Come in and look the stock over—don't buy unless you are suited; don't spend a dollar unless you get two to three times its worth in dependable footwear.

The sale will positively end on Saturday—but don't wait until Saturday—come today; we can give you better attention than we can tomorrow. There is bound to be an immense crowd on Saturday, the last day.

Shoes for Girls

Never before in the history of Los Angeles retailing have shoes for girls and misses been sold at such prices—dimes will do the work ordinarily expected of half-dollars. Girls' shoes as low as 50 cents, that you could not buy ordinarily at $1.50—others at $1.00 a pair. There is little use of paying more than $1.50.

Shoes for Boys

Bring the boys in—give them an object lesson in economy. One man who was here yesterday with his three boys picked up a pair of shoes from one of the bargain tables and said to the youngsters: "Those shoes are now marked 85 cents. The real value of that pair of shoes is not less than $2.25." That man was a judge of shoes.

Baby Shoes

Baby shoes as low as 10 cents; soft sole, ankle strapped slippers from 15 to 20 cents a pair. The very finest shoes for little tots can be bought for 50 cents.

Be Sure of the Location

This sale is being held in the Bon Marche building—the entire ground floor being devoted to shoe selling. Over 9000 square feet of floor space with nothing but shoes—it's a wonderful sight. Get the location fixed firmly in mind—on the EAST side of Broadway, numbers 480 to 484, between Fourth and Fifth streets, next door north of Parmelee-Dohrmann's.

SAFEST PLACE TO TRADE

FRIDAY'S Surprise Sale includes hundreds of short lines, accumulations of the week's tremendous selling. Every available foot of space is necessary for the display and sale of "new store" goods, which we are bringing from our big warehouses for this sale, and it is absolutely necessary that all short lines and broken lots be disposed of at once. The rest of this story is told in the prices named; be sure and read every one.

SPECIAL BULLETIN BOARD

Because of many lines of merchandise too small to advertise in the newspapers, we have placed special bulletin boards on each floor with a daily list of articles underpriced but not advertised. Look for them; it will pay you.
